We wish to be distinctly understood, that, in speaking of the North as false to the Union, we mean only that portion known as the Abolitionists. We know that there are many strong national and conservative men at the North. We know that pure and untarnished patriotism exists there; but alas! it is in an almost hopeless minority. We propose giving a hasty sketch of the Abolition party, and their acts; and, in doing so, we shall confine ourselves strictly to the record that History has given us. It is well-known that there has always existed in the Union, ever since its foundation, a strong feeling of enmity towards Slavery. The first public act of this party, that we can find recorded, is a Memorial presented in the House of Representatives,...
