The Fire Prevention Law which went into effect in November, 1911, greatly enlarged the powers of the Fire Commissioner by giving him power to ENFORCE all laws and ordinances in respect to: (1) Prevention of fires; (2) storage, sale, transportation and use of combustibles, chemicals and explosives; (3) installation and maintenance of automatic and other fire alarm systems and fire extinguishing equipment; (4) the means and adequacy of exit from all buildings, vessels and places where numbers of persons work, live or congregate (except tenement houses); (5) the investigation of the causes of fires and the suppression of arson. The Fire Commissioner through his subordinates has power (1) to inspect any building, vessel or place in Greater New York; (2) to order the remedying of any condition in...

Reviews

This book may be worth purchasing. It typically fails to expense excessive. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
