Hodder Education. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Early Times - 1066, John F. Aylett, 'In Search of History' is a well established and trusted series which covers British history from early times through to the twentieth century, The material is presented in an enjoyable way and contains a unique blend of social and political history. The author has produced a lively and easy-to-read narrative that is accessible to a wide range of pupils. Extensive use is made of contemporary illustrative sources as well as line drawings, diagrams and cartoons which have been specially selected to stimulate interest and curiosity. Where appropriate, there are evidence sections, using written and visual evidence. Graded questions based on the text and evidence sections are also included to test and develop various skills such as deduction and decision-making. 'In Search of History: Early Times - 1066' looks at the major historical events before 1066 including the arrival of the Romans, Anglo-Saxons and Vikings, and also the everyday life of people living in Britain from the Stone Age to 1066.
