Our saint was at that moment sitting under the razor of a barber, and held, as is customary with Orientals, a small mirror in his hand to direct the operator in his work. Feeling that his aid was invoked, he flung away his mirror. By Allahs help it made its way through air and water till it found its destination beneath the ship and stopped the leak, so that both vessel and cargo came safe to land. The vows, however, that are made to this saint in Acheh, are by no means confined to ships and sailors. His intervention is also invoked on behalf of sick children. The vow in such cases consists in the promise of a gold or silver hand, or the height of the child in gold (santeut dbng in the event of recovery. Such hands or pieces of gold..
