BRAND NEW, Goals and Dreams: A Celebration of Canadian Women's Soccer, Shel Brodsgaard, Bob Mackin, This book offers a detailed, in-depth look at how a diverse group of soccer-crazed Canadians developed into one of the worlds best teams. Through unique access to the players world -- both on- and off-field -- the authors reveal the passion and commitment these players have for the game and how they balance school, work and training. It follows their journey from the Edmonton Under-19 Womens World Championships -- where 50,000 fans plus a huge TV audience cheered them on -- to the Womens World Cup -- where they beat Argentina, Japan and China to capture fourth place -- and concludes with the Under-19 World Championships held in Thailand in November 2004. It features interviews with world-class stars like Charmaine Hooper and Christine Sinclair as well as up-and-coming teenagers like Brittany Timko, Kara Lang and Aysha Jamani. It also contains a brief history of womens soccer in Canada, as well as information on national team selection, chances for a professional career and training routines. The book includes an introduction by stellar midfielder Andrea Neil, who helped the Canadian Womens soccer team to their fourth-place finish in the recent World Cup and is their longest-serving midfielder. She recently played in her one-hundredth match for Canada.
