O. , 2007. LC Number: KF26 . I45 2007j OCLC Number: (OCoLC)176171774 Subject: Indians of North America -- Crimes against. Excerpt: . . . 11 to find out how we can better serve tribal law enforcement, how we can get that information to them more quickly, how we can provide them with better training, and how we can make sure our funding resources respond to their actual needs. In February, I highlighted the Department of Justice's new website which was created specifically for Indian Country. That website features information on grants, training, technical assistance, publications, and conferences that can help tribal law enforcement. This new website is one of the many areas in which DOJ is reaching out to tribal law enforcement. In 2005, I established the Office of Justice Programs Council on Native American Affairs. This council coordinates OJP's efforts on behalf of tribes and serves as a liaison with other Department of Justice components on tribal issues. I am very happy to say that many of the components within the Department of Justice have joined that council and are very active and energized. In addition, as the National AMBER Alert Coordinator, I am exploring ways to raise awareness about this program for residents in Indian Country. We have placed an especially high priority on informing tribes this year about the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act. OJP has sent a series of targeted mailings to tribes regarding the Act. Our staff has traveled to many conferences and meetings to discuss the Adam Walsh Act with tribal representatives. We will continue to keep...
