I noticed when Mr. Watson was making his demonstration of the No. 79 and describing the locks, he used the most elegant language, and I did not hear expressions of that kind. Certainly there has been a marked progress in that line at least. And again. with the Agents of this Convention, we have all received a great deal of courtesy from them, and I hope some day to try and return it. O. C. Rzn/es --I think that the idea of bringing the Agents to Dayton and meeting with the men in the Factory, and the exchange of ideas of men from all over the United States with the men in the Factory, is very beneficial to the Company and to everybody concerned; and I only hope that the next one will be very much larger, and better...
