TEMPS DES PRODIGES (LE)

Editions de l'Olivier, Paris, 2004. Livre de poche. Book Condition: Neuf. 110*180. 256 pages, dans la collection "Points", traduction de l'hébreu par Arlette Pierrot. Quatrième de couverture : "En Autriche, juste avant la Seconde Guerre mondiale, un écrivain juif, ami de Stefan Zweig et disciple de Kafka, subit les attaques et les calomnies antisémites de la presse. Témoin des errements de son père, son fils Bruno porte un regard aigu sur la lente régression de la société qui l'entoure et les signes précurseurs du drame et des persécutions à venir. Aharon Appelfeld rend visible la montée du nazisme avec une extraordinaire sobriété. Ecrivain du silence et de l'indicible, il fait l'économie du spectaculaire. Et c'est uniquement le quotidien et ses infimes lézardes qu'il nous présente - agrandies par l'ombre projetée de ce que nous connaissons de l'Histoire."
