Note: Blank cells indicate that OMB did not report a value in the technology category for this account for this year. a Sequestration can be defined as the capture and isolation of gases that otherwise could contribute to global climate change. b For 2001 Energy Supply-Nuclear funding, we counted the Nuclear Energy Research Initiative and Energy Supply-Nuclear budget accounts as presented by OMB. OMB did not separately present these accounts for 2004, and included funding for the Nuclear Energy Research Initiative within the Energy Supply-Nuclear account. We identified three ways that the figures on technology funding presented in OMBs three most recent reports may not be comparable to the figures presented in previous reports. First, OMB added accounts that were not previously presented. For example, OMB reported that NASA had 152 million in funding for technology-related activities that included research to reduce emissions associated with aircraft operations in 2003. OMB did not report this account in...
