No, let us rather humbly follow his example, and continually turn to God with contrition for our offences; gratitude for the blessings vouchsafed to us; and earnest and daily renewed endeavours to draw nearer to Him, by thankfully accepting all the means of grace He is every moment extending to us, and seconding them by our own efforts, weak and feeble as the best of those efforts may be. When you lie down to rest, then, my dear children, consider the state in which your soul might appear before God, should He be pleased to summon it away before the morning, and briefly, but solemnly, ask yourself--What sin have I this day committed in thought, word, or deed? What opportunity of doing good to others, or improving myself, have I neglected? Have I tried to subdue my...
