Excerpt: . . . 11 President Bill Young, you are batting clean-up here today, Mr. Young. Take it away. 1 TESTIMONY OF WILLIAM H. YOUNG, PRESIDENT, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF LETTER CARRIERS OUNG Mr. Y. Third baseman. I love it. Good afternoon, Chairman Carper and Ranking Member and other distinguished Members of the Subcommittee. Before I begin, I want to congratulate both Sen-ator Carper and Senator Collins on the outstanding work that they did in the long debate over Postal reform. It wasnt an easy thing to form a consensus on Postal reform, but you were able to do it and my hat is off to both of you for your efforts and all the other people that worked so hard achieving that. Our goals in Postal reform were straightforward, to enhance the long-term viability of the most efficient, affordable Postal Service in the world and to protect a legitimate interest of Americas Postal employees in general and letter carriers in particular. If properly implemented, I am confident the law will do exactly that. I want to again express my strongest opposition to contracting out the core functions of the Postal Service. As a letter carrier and a union leader, I make no apologies for standing up for decent jobs for American workers. The trend towards outsourcing to contingent low worker, no-benefit contractors has been broadly used in both private and public sectors in recent years. The results for working people have been downright...
