He half laughed at the ridiculous expedient to which Loseby s words had driven him, and looked at the two letters jocularly; but in the end he determined to take them. It would be as well to put them in old Loseby s hands. Heathcote volunteered to ride with him as he had done before. It was again a bright calm day, changed only in so far as November is different from October. There had been stormy weather in the meantime, and the trees were almost bare; but still it was fine and bright. Anne came out from the hall and stood on the steps to see them ride off. She gave them several commissions: to inquire at the bookseller s for the ball programmes, and to carry to...
