Excerpt: . me out of the cast of the comic opera. But that s all right. I m going to join the freshman track team now, and run in the meet against the sophomores next week. Your old show and your old crew needn t have me if they don t want me. I can stand it. But I tell you again, this fun match was all a plot, and some of you fellows helped it along. Nor was Penny able to persuade Twig to the contrary. It was noticeable, however, that Arnie Borglum and four-other sophomores wore a wide and continuous grin for several days. And why shouldn t we smile? demanded the president of the second-year class. You freshmen may stage a comic opera, but we sophomores have some pretty good actors, too. Ask Twig. CHAPTER XIII TERWILLIGER S TRIUMPH ALL out for...
